

Nadine Vatel is the current CEO of Gather With A Purpose Inc. an organization serving disadvantaged residents within the Washing D.C. and surrounding metropolitan areas. Nadine believes in empowering members of her community and often utilizes her talents as a writer/novelist to address social and economic issues.

Upon completing her degree at the esteemed Howard University, Nadine spent over seven years as the CEO of Nadine's House, a Professional Organizing Service. As a native of Maryland with strong ties to the West Indian community, she continues to serve her community by organizing and hosting events that address the social, educational, and financial needs of her community.